THE ALLIANCE IN KANSAS.

COL. L. L. POLK, of Raleigh, President of the National Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Union, is making a tour of the Southern and Western States. On July 7th he and other prominent members of the Alliance spoke at Holden, Kansas. The report is that there was a procession five miles long, and that there were over 20,000 people in attendance. It was the grandest demonstration ever made by the farmers of Kansas.

This big celebration in "bleeding Kansas" recalls a conversation the editor of the CHRONICLE had with two influential Kansas editors--one a Republican and the other a Democrat--at the recent National Editorial Association at Boston. The Republican, who had held high position in the State, was asked: "What is the Farmers' Alliance doing in your State?"

We might as well have offered him a gross insult. He looked excited and indignant, and when he did reply it was to heap violent abuse upon the Alliance.
He declared that they were everything that was bad; that they were seeking to establish communism wherever they had power; they were dishonest, devilish and socialists. It amused the CHRONICLE editor more than a little to hear this Republican's abuse of the Alliance. We knew what it meant. He denied that it would have any appreciable influence in the election, but his denial did not comport with the indignation the question produced. He evidently saw what we hope is the handwriting on the wall, viz: "The Republican party is weighed in the balances and found wanting," and was wrath in the evident fear that the rule would be taken from his party.

The Democratic editor was asked the same question. He replied: "The Alliance is giving Republican politicians the very devil. They are frightened within an inch of their lives. They are scared-- and badly scared. The Alliance is preaching Democratic doctrine on the Tariff and Finance, and the Republicans do not know how to meet the attack.
You know that the Alliance has declared against the re-election of INGALLS to the Senate, and we are hopeful that the bitter sectionalism will be defeated. At least," he concluded, "whether the Alliance does any other good or not, it has done this: It has scared the Republicans, and I believe the end will witness a Democratic majority in Kansas." But he was not confident, and expressed to us the great difficulties under which the Democrats in Kansas labor.

COL. POLK has been speaking in that section on Alliance principles and against sectionalism. Of course he has not touched upon partisan politics, but if he and the Alliance can kill sectionalism, there is no doubt that the Democrats will carry Kansas and other Western States upon a reduction of taxation and the free coinage of silver.

Let us hope that the teaching of the Alliance that "we are brethren" will have a wholesome effect upon the 75,000 Alliance men in Kansas. If the order can do this great good, every good citizen will the more readily excuse it if some mistakes are made by the more hasty members of the order here in North Carolina.

THE FORCE BILL.

The passage of the Force bill by the House has profoundly agitated the country. From all sections have come expressions of objection, and the more the question is discussed the more the wiser Republicans realize that it is a dangerous bill and may kick back. They fear that it will not work and that it can be said of this bill, as is true of every other measure they have passed to oppress the South, that it has injured them and given the South power and strength. They fear it may truly be said:

There was a man Who dugged a pit
To punish his brother;
To punish his sin He did fall in The pit he digged for t'other.

REV. SAM JONES, of Georgia, who is in Washington, has been interviewed by the Washington Post upon the bill, and he is reported to have said:

"These folks who think they can do anything with the Federal Election bill are mistaken. A free ballot and a fair count, in the South, means negro domination, and the South won't have it.
The election law will be a dead letter, like the fifteenth amendment. It would take $500,000 to enforce it, a regiment in every county. A negro is killed in the South once in a while--killed with lead. Up in Indiana they kill white voters with silver. You buy voters up North with money. In the South one gets killed once in a while. It is cheaper, but a hundred are purchased in the North where one is killed in the South, and the purchasing of votes is as dangerous to the Republic as the killing of voters."

"What will the Senate do?" is the question asked on every hand. SENATOR CARLISLE said to a New York Star reporter:

"I am rather inclined to think that the Republicans will not bring up the Election bill in the Senate. They have full notice that if the Tariff bill should be brought up, it is the purpose of the Democrats to consume all the time possible in the consideration of that measure. There is no concealment of our purpose in respect to that bill, and if the Republicans should decide to bring up the Tariff bill before the Election bill, my deliberate opinion is that their action can be accepted as an indication of their intention to let the Election bill go over. Our side has not yet formulated any plan of action, but we have a substantial agreement that the Tariff bill will be debated to the full extent that its importance justifies."

The usually well posted Washington correspondent of the Atlanta Constitution, writes:

There are many Senators who do not believe the Senate will ever take up the bill for serious consideration. Among them are some Republicans, but they are the men who oppose the measure. Notwithstanding this talk, the chances are that the bill will come up and such men as SHERMAN and CHANDLER, and those men of their ilk, are determined that it shall become a law before this session ends.

The Senate rules will, however, not be changed. Ingalls and Edmunds would never agree to that. The fight is to be one of endurance. Debate in the Senate is unlimited, and if the Democrats have the nerve and endurance the bill can never pass. However, the Republicans will test the strength of the Democrats in the most severe manner.
The plan of the Republicans is now to debate the question for a short while, and if it becomes evident that the Democrats' plan is to talk the bill to death, to test their powers of endurance by keeping the senate in continuous session for days and weeks and months, without adjournment or recess, day or night, until the Democrats weaken from exhaustion. The Republican senators will not speak, nor will they remain in the chamber. They will simply keep one or two men on guard, and when the last Democrat gives out will call the vote.

Under this programme, if carried out, the defeat of the bill depends entirely upon the nerve and powers of endurance of the Democratic Senators. But to defeat it, the Democratic Senators must keep up continued flow of oratory without intermission day or night, not even Sundays, for fully two months. The Republicans are already boasting that the Democrats will give up the fight before the end of the first thirty days, but "tis quite certain that such men as Morgan and Butler will never succumb as long as they are able to say a word.

SENATOR RANSOM DIDN'T SAY IT

In Sunday's CHRONICLE there was a paragraph copied from the St. Louis Globe-Democrat to the effect that SEN-ATOR RANSOM had polled the Senate and ascertained that they would vote for the Federal Election Law.

SENATOR RANSOM telegraphs that he never made any such statement and that the St. Louis paper had no foundation for its publication. Our senior Senator is wise and discreet, and seldom allows himself to be interviewed, and we thought it strange that he should make such a representation to the St. Louis paper. We are glad to make the correction and to know that the Senator does not hold the view attributed to him. He is one of the wisest of our public men and his opinion is worth having upon any public measure.

THE PEOPLE ARE BRAVE AND GENEROUS.

[Grover Cleveland's Letter to Tammany.] We should not in blind security deny the existence of danger. The masses of our countrymen are brave and therefore generous; they are strong and therefore confident, and they are honest and therefore unswerving. Our people are in the case with which they may be deluded and deceived by those who would traffic with their interests.

The Western Guide, of Hendersonville, is giving to Hendersonville a live and wide-awake Democratic journal. It supplies a long felt want. With a strong and able and vigorous Democratic paper at that beautiful town, Hendersonville can soon be redeemed from Radicalism.

FREE SILVER THE ISSUE.

We see it stated that MR. MANTON MARBLE, formerly of the New York World, who is said to be the author of the Democratic platform in 1876, is out in an article in which he advises the Democratic party to make the free coinage of silver, at the ratio of 12 1/2 ounces of silver to one of gold, an issue in the campaign in 1892. MR. MARBLE, who is the highest authority on that point, says that the plan PRESIDENT CLEVE-LAND and SECRETARY MANNING wished carried out was this plan of forcing Europe to free coinage at 15 1/2 to 1 by stopping our purchases of silver, thereby opening the way for us to coin freely at the same ratio, and so accomplish the free silver coinage without any disturbance of values, or any change in the currency except a welcome increase in its volume. This is wise advice that MR. MARBLE gives, and advice that the party will surely take.
When it had the House several years ago, the Democrats passed a bill for free coinage but the Republican Senate defeated it. With Free Coinage and Tariff Reduction as the issues, the Democratic party will be certain to win a glorious victory. The Atlanta Constitution says that the attitude of MR.
CLEVELAND towards Free Coinage has changed.

The people of the South and West have never followed MR. CLEVELAND in his financial views, and he if has changed his position they will be truly enthusiastic in his support. The Atlanta Constitution proposes this as the Democratic National platform:

Opposition to federal interference in elections--

The free coinage of silver--

Tariff reform and the reduction of taxation--

An honest and economical administration of the affairs of the government in all departments.

That is the platform to win on.

QUESTION AND ANSWER.

EDITOR CHRONICLE:--I read a great deal about the Farmer's Alliance. Please tell me what it is.

SUBSCRIBER.

The Farmer's Alliance is an organized protest against the Republican legislation of the past quarter of a century.
That is all it is, and it is composed of farmers who exclude all other classes from membership.

IT IS THE BEST AND ONLY HOPE.

What interest of the people is it that the Democratic party does not propose to promote? View the matter as you may, the best hope of finding relief from grievances and obtaining the highest good to the whole people is in the Democratic party.--Rockingham Rocket.

Murphy's store the other day and said,

"Lemme see the size of the glasses."
(A glass was produced.)
"Do you put ice in 'em?"
"Yes."
